A Trip to the Snowy Mountains

Liam had never seen snow before. One winter holiday, his family took a trip to the Snowy Mountains. As they drove up the hills, Liam saw whitesnow covering the trees and roads. He jumped with excitement.

At the cabin, Liam quickly wore his warm coat, boots, and gloves. He ran outside to build his first snowman. He gave it a carrot nose and a scarf. Later, Liam and his sister had a snowball fight. They laughed and played until their cheeks turned red. As the sun set, they sat by the fireplace, sipping hot chocolate. Liam smiled. He knew this was a holiday he'd always remember.
