Lily's Busy Morning

Lily was always running late in the mornings.
She would wake up late, rush through breakfast, and forget things like her homework or lunchbox.
One day, she missed the school bus and had to walk in the rain.

At school, she realised she had forgotten her science project too. That night, Lily told her mum, "I want to be better at getting ready." Her mum helped her make a simple morning checklist.

It said: wake up at 7:00, eat breakfast, pack school bag, check project. The next morning, Lily followed the list and was ready on time.

She even helped her little brother pack his bag!
Lily felt proud and learned that being organised saves time and stress.
